

A diagram of a rectangular object divided into two vertical sections. The left section is wider than the right section. Dimension lines with arrows indicate the measurements: 6 1/2 inches for the width of the left section, 2 inches for the width of the right section, and 11 inches for the height of the entire object.

6 1/2"

2"

11"